PRIVACY POLICY

- The Main Ridge Bowls & Pétanque Club Inc. collects only that personal information from members and applicants which is necessary for the running of the Club and which is needed to offer the services and activities expected by members of the Club.
- This information is collected directly from members and applicants, not from third parties.
- At any time members may request the Club to inform them of the personal information the Club holds about them.
- Access to the Club's information database, which may only be used for legitimate Club purposes, is restricted and controlled by the Secretary. Paper records are kept only as long as is necessary for administrative, historical recording and legal purposes and access to them is also restricted to those with a legitimate purpose.
- The Club does not make its membership records available to any outside organisations or individuals. However, limited information such as name, address and date of birth of members may be required by and issued to Bowls Victoria; Mornington Peninsula Bowls Inc. and other clubs affiliated with the said Bowls Division; the Pétanque Federation Australia and the Victorian Pétanque Clubs Victoria Inc. as a condition of the registration of members with those bodies or participation in tournaments.
- A list of Sporting Group members and their contact details can be distributed to other Sporting Group members. This information should not be passed on to unauthorised people or used for non-Club purposes.
